An effective technique for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these prospects have already bought an e book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a sales web page for the new guide, but do not embody a value on that page. As an alternative, add various links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out costs by creating a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with different costs on each page. Ensure your sales copy is exactly the identical on every page, and contains your promoting-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your site and gross sales of your book. It will inform you what your optimum value is.

In the end, if you've written a e book that solves a problem or presents a new method, your ebook will bring in both traffic and profits. So be sure you write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what downside your guide solves and what the benefits of your 100 book will probably be to the purchasers who purchase it.
