An effective technique for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your present customers. If these customers have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the new e-book, but do not embrace a worth on that page. As an alternative, add a number of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to check out costs by creating a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different costs on each page. Make sure your sales copy is exactly the same on every web page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. It will let you know what your optimum price is.
