An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an ebook from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do this by creating a sales page for the new guide, but don't embody a worth on that page. Instead, add a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other strategy is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Make sure that your sales copy is strictly the identical on every web page, and contains your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for every web page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. It will let you know what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, in the event you've written a ebook that solves a drawback or presents a new method, your book will bring in each traffic and profits. So make sure to write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what drawback your book solves and what the advantages of your 52 e book will probably be to the purchasers who purchase it.
