If these prospects have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do this by making a gross sales web page for the new book, however don't include a value on that page. As an alternative, add numerous hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a price to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out costs by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Be sure your sales copy is exactly the same on each web page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. This will tell you what your optimum price is.

Finally, should you've written a e-book that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your guide will bring in each site visitors and profits. So remember to write that promoting-deal with sentence that sums up what problem your e-book solves and what the benefits of your 768 e book will likely be to the purchasers who buy it.
